

SOCIETY

THE social calendar of the week just past opened with a brilliant reception which was tendered Mrs. Charles Elliot at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, when a number of Richmond's most prominent women had the pleasure of meeting the wife of the retiring president of Harvard University.

Mrs. Elliot, who received with the president and the officers of the club, was beautifully gowned in tawn-colored crepe and wore violets. She is a charming woman, and made a most pleasing impression on Richmond society during her short stay here.

A number of debutantes were away from the city during the early part of the week. They included Miss Susan McGuire, Miss Barbara Trigg, Miss Roberta Hamilton, and Miss Sarah Hamilton, of Petersburg, and Miss Frances Myers, who were spending a few days with Miss Sue Carter, Mrs. Bransford's niece, of Shirley-on-the-James, and were enjoying several sailing parties and other entertainments given in their honor.

Intellectual women here recently had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Warren Newcomb Boyd. Mrs. Boyd is the president of the Southern Association of College Women, and will be a prominent figure in the general meeting of the association to be held next week in Atlanta.

Women interested in church work heard with pleasure Miss Sallie Stuart's address before the Woman's Auxiliary of the Richmond churches. While here Miss Stuart was the guest of Miss Alice Leigh. In Mrs. Andrew Christian's home on Friday the committee which was organized last week to further the work of the Blue Ridge Industrial School held an important meeting and discussed new plans and ideas for the promotion of their work.

First in the list of delightful affairs given during the week was a dinner party, to compliment Miss Hussay, of Boston, who has been the guest of Miss Caroline Gordon Rennolds for two weeks at her home on Franklin Street. Miss Page Royall was her hostess at dinner last week, when she entertained for her and Charles Eate, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was spending several days here.

Among the ante-nuptial entertainments given to April brides was a pin shower, which Miss Rachel Crenshaw's friends enjoyed with her in her home on Monday evening last, and a luncheon given by the Misses Finley at "Picquenoque" on Friday at 2 o'clock, when they entertained in honor of Miss Fannie Archer, whose wedding to Charles Atkinson Brown will take place on Wednesday, April 11. Covers were laid for twelve guests.

Mrs. Thomas Whitte was hostess at tea on Thursday for Miss Helen Riley, of Canada, who is her house guest.

Wedding Attendants.

At the wedding of Miss Bertha Adamson and James Wilson Hall, which is to take place in Bon Air Presbyterian Church at noon on Saturday next, Mrs. Charles C. Howe, of Richmond, will be Miss Adamson's matron of honor, and Miss Lucile Douglas, of New York, will act as maid of honor. Miss Douglas arrives to-morrow to be with the Adamsons until after the wedding, and expects to call the following Saturday for England, where she will study art. Gordon Fitzwillson, of New York City, will be best man, and the ushers are to be Messrs. Vincent Adamson, Darnley Adamson, David Phillips, of New York, and James Wattison.

About one hundred and fifty invitations have been issued to the wedding breakfast to be given in the Adamson home at Bon Air after the ceremony.

Garden Fete Association.

An imperative need for action on the part of the Garden Fete Association, having charge of the Indoor Garden Fete, given with so much success last year, has arisen.

All members of the association and all others interested are requested to be present at the Jefferson Hotel on Tuesday, April 6, at 4:30 P. M.

The Week to Come.

The coming week bids fair to be a busy one from a patriotic standpoint. The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will hold a very important meeting on Tuesday to make final arrangements for the annual excursion which they will give on May 12 to Jamestown Island, when the John Smith statue will be unveiled.

The meeting on Tuesday follows that of the Hollywood Memorial Association yesterday noon in the lecture-room of the Second Presbyterian Church, when arrangements for the program of Memorial Day were made.

On Tuesday next at 2 o'clock Miss Katherine Hicks will entertain at luncheon in the Hermitage Golf Club to compliment Miss Crenshaw, one of the early April brides, and Miss Emily Waddill will be a pleasant hostess of Thursday, when she will give a handkerchief shower to her cousin, Miss Nancy Garland Waddill, whose wedding to Menaceus Lankford, of Norfolk, is to be celebrated during Easter week.

The Easter festivities this year at the University of Virginia promise an unusually gay holiday season, there for the many Richmond girls who will be there, among them Miss Lillian Blinford, Misses Hamilton, Misses Taylor, Miss Frances Myers, Miss Lucy Ford Wortham, Miss Eleanor Lindsey and many others who will unite in upholding Richmond's reputation for charming belles and beauties.

Miss Anne Keith Royall left Friday for the "Point to Point" races to be held at Warrenton. She will be joined there by Miss Virginia Whiteley, and they will be guests of Mr. Smith for a week. Miss Royall will go over to the university for Easter.

Miss McCorkle at Club.

Miss Constance McCorkle will speak of her work to the members of the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. On Wednesday afternoon the history class will meet to discuss "Louis Philippe, the Citizen King," under the direction of Mrs. R. O. Bell. Members are requested to take notice that hereafter all club meetings will be at 5 P. M. instead of 4:30, as during the winter months.

The fifteenth report of Woman's Club has been issued and makes a splendid showing in the growth and development of the club along all lines. The farthest of the retiring president, Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, who has filled the office to which she was elected for three terms, with great ability, expresses in a very graceful manner her appreciation of the co-operation and sympathy of the officers and the board of managers and chairmen of the club during her administration.

The recording secretary and treasurer of the club, Miss Claire Guillaume, identified with its history from its beginning until now, calls attention of members to the special achievement of the club during the past year, the retirement of its second mortgage bonds eighteen months before maturity. The financial condition of the club, states Miss Guillaume, is excellent. The debt of the club building is reduced to $12,000, held in thirteen $1,000 bonds, which cannot be redeemed until maturity, in July, 1920.

A fund is gradually accumulating to partly meet this indebtedness when it falls due. During the year just ended $1,000 worth of bonds have been redeemed, the club has no bills, there is $200 due it and a balance of $1,356.53 in the treasury.

The newly elected officers and board of governors include Miss Jane M. Rutherford, president; Mrs. J. Arthur Letroy, first vice-president; Mrs. T. Catesby Jones, second vice-president; Miss Claire Guillaume, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Charles M. Perrell, corresponding secretary, and Mesdames Moses D. Hodge, John H. Hunter, H. A. Sampson, J. H. Southall, R. E. Magill, Hodges, T. Cary Johnson, R. E. Magill, Frank W. Duke, John S. Mance and W. D. Thomas.

Richmond City Mission.

The regular monthly meeting of the Richmond City Mission will be held to-morrow (Monday) at 10:30 A. M. in the rooms of the Woman's Christian Association. All members, including those of the Church Hill branch, are requested to attend this important meeting.

Board of Managers.

There will be a meeting of the board of managers of the Association for the Preservation of J. Virginia Antiquities in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society on Tuesday, April 6, at noon.

Schubert and Mendelssohn Recital.

An interesting recital was given on March 27 by Mr. Hahn's pupils in his studio. Only Schubert and Mendelssohn were represented on the program, and selections were performed by the following pupils, viz: Miss Eva Anderson, of West Point; Miss Louise Barker, Miss Virginia Chestnut, Miss Martha McCarthy, Miss Bessie Powell, Miss Jessie Reid, of Radford; Miss Marquess Ritch, Miss Marion Sperry, Miss Bessie Strong, Miss Bessie Stearns, Miss Irene Wallenstein, Miss Emma White and Barnett Hough. Biographical sketches of the above composers were read by Miss Josephine Clark, of Norfolk, and Miss Anne
